To the Honorable Lewis J. Liman

As a result of the pandemic, the hotel at issue in the instant matter, The Hotel Giraffe, has been and remains closed. The Defendants are unsure if the hotel will reopen at this time; should it not, this litigation would become moot.

Accordingly, the parties would request the following:

1. A stay of the proceedings until the parties know definitely if the subject hotel will reopen.
2. That the proposed joint pretrial order and the trial date be adjourned sine die and this matter be stayed for an additional three (3) months, until it can be determined whether the hotel is reopened.

This is the second extension of time and adjournment request related to the joint pretrial order and trial date.

The Court's attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

DATED: December 1, 2020

This action is STAYED until February 1, 2021. The parties are directed to submit a joint status letter at that time.

SO ORDERED. 12/1/2020.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Respectfully submitted,
